APPALLING PICTURE OF DESOLATION AND DEATH IN THE FAMINE AREAS

STEAMER SAN JOSE CALLING FOR HELP

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—The steamer San Jose struck and grounded on San Pablo Reef, Assumption Island, according to distress messages received early this morning by the United States Naval Radio Station at Yerba Buena Island.

The passengers aboard the San Jose were declared in danger.

A message received from the naval station at San Diego. It was a broadcast telling other ships of the San Jose's plight and instructing any nearby to go to her assistance.

A third wireless said the San Jose was taking a big "list."

Bodies of Seventeen Are Recovered Out of Forty-Seven From Wreck of Steamer Alaska; Purser's Books Gone

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 8.—Oil-soaked wreckage, indicating the treacherous of Blunt's Reef, 190 miles north of here, conceals the mystery of thirty persons missing in the sinking of the coastwise steamer Alaska, Saturday, from which seventeen bodies have been recovered. Out of the forty-seven passengers including one woman, and nine of the crew, 167 have been saved. The records of the purser went down with the ship and the exact loss of life may never be known, for checking thus far shows that several passengers have been rescued whose names differ not upon the company's list of passengers and crew prepared at Portland, Oregon, the city of departure. The check thus far indicates that forty-seven may be perished.

At Alaska, 40 miles north of the wreck, are 17 bodies. Six of them have been identified as six passengers including one woman, and nine of the crew. Meanwhile along the rocky coast parties continued a search for bodies. In hospitals at Alaska many injured survivors.

A score or more survivors reached San Francisco today. Out of the wreckage of the steamer Alaska, the bodies of the crew and passengers were recovered. The bodies of the crew and passengers were recovered. The bodies of the crew and passengers were recovered.

"We thought we were three miles outside the reef when we were hit," said the purser. "An uncharted reef, the current here carried us in shore. We observed this current later when our lifeboats drifted northward from the wreck."

Dr. J. H. Full Speed.

ETREKA, Calif., Aug. 8.—First aid was given to the survivors of the steamer Alaska as they were rescued from the wreck. The bodies of the crew and passengers were recovered. The bodies of the crew and passengers were recovered.

Refugees Are Crawling On Hands and Knees To Centres of Relief

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Thousands of Russian refugees are pouring into Great Britain—two thousand a day—many crawling on hands and knees, too weak to stand, and seeking living in dugouts along the coast. An appalling picture of the desolation, death and devastation in the famine areas in Russia, is given by P. Thompson, in charge of the Great Britain district for the American Relief Administration, and the European children's fund, who arrived here last night.

"No one who has not seen suffering," he said, "can imagine how greatly it is. So awful are the hunger pangs that the bodies become swollen and bloated, and the cheeks puffed out. This is the picture to death, which the sufferers say that they have seen in the famine areas. They have dragged themselves up to see, hanging for pennies and food."
